

Great Missenden Parish Church and CE Combined School 6 March, 10:00 am to 4:00 pm

Come hear

Dave Bookless, A Rocha UK, author of Planetwise

Paula Clifford, Christian Aid, author of Angels with Trumpets

Chris Sunderland, founder of Earth Abbey talking about how Christians can offer "living hope" on environmental issues

Richard Weaver, Senior Policy Officer on Climate Change and Disasters, Tearfund talking about Copenhagen, where he was one of the 50 representatives of civil society elected to stay in the conference centre until the conference's end

Paul Chandler, CEO of Traidcraft

opening our "Big Brew" and offering a workshop on "Fair Trade and Sustainability" and participate in the marketplace, worship and workshops including:

Richard Weaver on Copenhagen ◇ Dave Bookless on "Living Lightly" ◇ Chris Sunderland on "Spirituality, Community and the Earth" ◇ Paul Chandler on "Fair Trade and Sustainability" ◇ Revd Professor Ian James on The Science of Climate Change and Responding to Climate Questions ◇ Joanna and Nick Gallant from Pelagos on Worship ◇ CAFOD and Christian Aid staff on Campaigning on Climate Change ◇ A panel of energy experts and engineers discussing What's new in renewables ◇ Planning and Experiencing a Green Prayer Walk ◇ Meetings for Churches considering or already involved in Eco-Congregations ◇ Meeting for Eco-Schools ◇ Working in the Community

Fee £5 payable on the day. Advance registration necessary to ensure workshop choices.

To register, email maranda@ccow.org.uk or webmaster@grtmissenden.bucks.sch.uk.

Supported by A Rocha, Bucks County Council, CAFOD, CCOW, Christian Aid, Diocese of Oxford, Earth Abbey, Parish of Great Missenden, Great Missenden CE Combined School, Reading CEL Group, Tearfund, Traidcraft