Chocolate Tasting Set

The popular Divine Chocolate Tasting Set includes 12 miniature bars of Fairtrade chocolate in 6 flavours – three different dark chocolates; two different milk chocolates; and a creamy white chocolate with strawberries. Scrumptious! The cocoa comes from the Ghanaian Fairtrade cooperative Kuapa Kokoo – who own 40% of the company and benefit from a share in its profits.

Bamboo Socks

Bamboo has a much lighter environmental impact than cotton – and feels super soft. These socks are made of sustainable bamboo, which is processed into yarn in Rajasthan, India, and made into socks at a factory in a rural district of Tamil Nadu. The supplier, a member of the WFTO, includes staff in decision making, as well as giving both men & women management opportunities.

£5.99 - £6.99. Available from Shared Earth. A wide range of bamboo socks is available from Traidcraft, FTSM, HFT, MS, and RISC.

Jelly Bean Delight

Yes, there is such a thing as a Fairtrade jelly bean! And assortment packs from the Jelly Bean Factory offers a sample of 36 gourmet flavours – everything from Caribbean coconut, cola and candy floss to tangerine, Hawaiian pineapple, pomegranate, and many more. Which will be the favourite

O Little Town ...

For centuries, artisans in the Holy Land have fashioned beautiful olive wood carvings. This ornament from WFTO member Holy Land Handicrafts depicts the Nativity and comes, appropriately, from Bethlehem. A lovely way to celebrate Christmas and to support craftspeople in maintaining livelihoods and traditions.

£4.95 Available from Traidcraft. Olive wood ornaments are also available from FTSM, MS and RISC. Photo: Traidcraft
