

Intercessions for Refugee Week 2025

Theme: 'Community as a Superpower'

We pray for all people who have been forced to flee their original communities because of conflict, oppression, or persecution. Lord, in your mercy ...

We pray for all people who are encountering danger on their journeys to seek a new and safe community to live in. May they find welcoming communities that offer safety and peace. Lord, in your mercy ...

We pray for all people who are recovering from trauma experienced in their communities of origin and in their journeys to safety. May they be granted true comfort and healing. Lord, in your mercy ...

We pray for the family, friends, and colleagues who have remained at home when others have fled, that they may find comfort at this time, and that peace and justice may transform their communities. Lord, in your mercy ...

We give thanks for the vision of a shared community of humankind embedded in the UN Convention on Refugees, and pray that all countries and peoples may act in accordance with its provisions. Lord, in your mercy ...

We pray that our churches may be welcoming communities for all who seek sanctuary, so that God's love may be made visible. Lord, in your mercy ...-

We thank you for the way churches and refugee communities together are discovering the power of community - where joys and sorrows are shared, help is offered and received, people willingly bear one each other's burdens, and love brings hope and healing. Lord, in your mercy ...
