

Refugees Welcome

At Christmas,
there's an old tradition
of placing a lighted candle
in the window.

It's to provide light
for Jesus' family as they travel
and to offer them welcome.
It's also to welcome the person
seeking refuge today.

Our candle says to people
fleeing persecution or conflict:
You are welcome here.

Poster by Christian Concern for One World.
Visit us at ccow.org.uk to find out how you and your church can welcome refugees.

